

A mother, a daughter and one very big secret that's about to turn their world upside down. Elizabeth has kept a secret from her daughter Olivia for over 40 years, and it's about to come tumbling out. The ramifications will ripple through three generations and test the relationship between mother and daughter. Witness the horror of Nazi Germany, senseless guilt, and the healing power of love and forgiveness, as a family evolves and finds their way back to each other. Shelby June is a native of New Hampshire, born in Concord and raised in Rochester. Her interests include writing, reading, music, film, theatre, and travelling. She is an active member of BNI TEAM Eppicenter and also the New Hampshire Writers Project. She currently lives in Rochester with her husband Rick, her daughter Emily, and furry baby, Isabel. Shelby is working on her second book, Patchwork, a collection of short stories. Her third book, yet to be titled, will be a continuation of Lost and Found.
