

Let Your Future be a celebration of Gods love! The glorious tomorrow God has promised us has already begun, says Tom Sine, and we are invited to be a part of it. If youve been searching for a way to live more simply, more economically, more unselfishly, and more biblically, he has some exciting news for you. You have the opportunity to join the growing numbers of THE MUSTARD SEED CONSPIRACY, Christians who are rediscovering the truth that the most satisfying life is not the life of greed and acquisitiveness--but the life that is given away. Early in the book, Tom outlines the unprecedented problems and needs that are likely to be a part of our future in the next two decades. But he shows how these emerging human challenges are really emerging opportunities for the church to respond, to care, and to make a real difference in a world of exploding need.
