

Excerpt from The Proceedings and Speeches: At the Public Dinner Given to James W. Gerard by the Bar of New York, January 14, 1869, on His Retiring From Practice Dear Sir ; - It is with deep regret that your professional brethren of this City have learned that you are about to retire from the Bar, of which you have so long been an acknowledged leader and ornament. They are unwilling that a relation so pleasant and profitable to them should be severed without an opportunity to manifest in a public manner their high appreciation of your worth, both as a Lawyer and Citizen. We beg therefore that you will name an early day when you will meet the Bar of New York, at a dinner to commemorate your retirement from professional life.
